HOW DOES IT WORK?

This fertility program is based on the use of homoeopathic and herbal remedies and nutritional supplements. The homoeopathic remedies being the major key to the success of the program.

Homeopathy is extremely successful in the treatment of conditions related to hormonal imbalances - this program therefore improves fertility by balancing hormone levels, regulating the menstrual cycle and stimulating ovulation. It also improves stress levels and feelings of grief and despair often associated with infertility.

THE PROGRAM

- Balances your hormone levels
- Reverses the suppressive effects of OCP (oral contraceptive pill)
- Treats underlying pathologies - like fibroids, PCOS and endometriosis
- Regulates your menstrual cycle
- Stimulates ovulation
- Increases libido
- Reduces stress and feelings of grief and despair (often associated with infertility & miscarriage)

A PROVEN SYSTEM

This exceptional program has been established and proven by the internationally renowned Homoeopathic and natural fertility specialist – Liz Lalor. It boasts a massive 87% success rate which makes it one of the highest in the country. Current statistics for assisted reproductive techniques such as IVF are between 15-40%.

A number of professional practitioners around the world have been trained and accredited to use this program – with all those using it reflecting the same amazing success rates.

Vanessa Glenn of Bloom Family Health has recently been trained, accredited and appointed to provide this unique opportunity in Western Australia. She introduced this program to WA in January and the interest and uptake has been overwhelming. Vanessa is confident that her own statistics will mirror those achieved by other trained practitioners. The founder of the program is in regular contact with her practitioners – this further ensures the success of the programs.

Vanessa is a fully qualified homoeopathic practitioner, naturopath and herbalist with considerable experience in women's health conditions. She is the founder of Bloom Family Health with rooms in Mandurah and Applecross.
